The Paradox of Free Will

The Natural Laws of Reciprocity, Allowance and Balance are collectively known as the Laws of Divine LOVE

Pages 10-12

- There is a tricky relationship between Allowance, reciprocity and balance in the eternal life flow of Divine Amoraesa Love.
- Each level of creation as it flashes into existence emanates a certain amount of quantum. If it is not regenerated through the natural perpetual renewal of life or the vampiring off another life system.
- The thought emanation A'ya will eventually disperse back into the eternal spirit Ah-yah.

Free Will

The ultimate expression of Divine Love

- As the All That Is God Source 1st Eternal Ah-yah A'ah (You, Me, We, Us, They, IT) we naturally within the Kryst Code have the thought intention to choose.
- In that conscious intention within the ManU the polarity split of the EirA of the sound Krystallah emanated from the Manu out picturing the first Cause Light emanation of the Kryst Code.
- The Kryst code holds the Light Body mechanics of the manifestation Template of perpetual renewal.

The Center Point of Eternal Creation

- Finding the balance within the positive and negative polarities of the Internal Eternal flows of creation of God Source 1st Eternal Ah-yah A'ya (you, me, we, us, they, IT)
- “The path of Eternal Life and continual AT-ONE-ment with God-Source, which is made possible through the INTERNAL Kristos/Christos/God-Spark Seed Atom and Krist/Christ Divine Blueprint, is known as the —Path of *Replenishing Return,” the —Path of Joy,” or the —Path of the Christos.” (page 11)

There is no Blame or Shame

- God Source 1st Eternal follows it's own mathematical ratios of allowance, reciprocity and balance.
- Free will choice is part of who we are but it is an art to master.
- In the mastery there is an accountability to the I Amness.
- You are either in your vortex or in the weeds

The Fail Safe Host

- We can not pull those out by the boot straps who choose The Path of Chaos: The Anti-Christiac Imposed Will Objective and the Destiny of Sorrow, Atheist Transhumance AI Phantom Earth 8th Sphere expression.
- They have to make new choices working with The AL-Hum-Bhra Guardian Administrators of the Kryst mechanics to find their way back.

Harmonizing Journey to Re-Alignment

Private Sessions

- Harmonizing Journey to Re-Alignment utilizes Keylonta and Tan-Tri-Ahura mechanics. Both sciences are the original organic 1st Creation Mechanics.
- The mechanics work with the organic Light Body and Plasma Spirit Body Structure to bring you back to your organic 1st Creation Mechanics of the Eternal Domain of the All That Is.
- This technology realigns the Artificial Finite 2nd Creation Fibonacci Tube Torus Net Earth program with its natural, perpetually renewing, organic Ascension New Earth expression.

The Pod Space

We start out working in the Yhu Rha Dha Krystal Caverns, clearing programs, keeping you stuck. Then, you can connect with the Rainbow Pillar Bridge to the Yhu Rha Dha Zone to perform soul retrieval work. Next, you make your way into Yhu RhA yah Earth to set up your Temple Pod Space. From there, you are connecting to even deeper aspects of your multidimensionality to explore.

The Introductory session take about 2 hours.

Waking In Alania Book Series

- While this story appears to be a typical science fiction tale, it is actually a piece of Earth's ancient, hidden history. Much of the past I had remembered through my affiliation with the Freedom Teachings of Keylontic Science. The rest was through the characters' lives in the story, shared through me. Kara, Eshwa, Genado, Prince Caldor, Queen Asana, and Even General Damien all have a place in my heart. I was glad I could get their story down on paper. These books were a long time in the making and still are.
- I started them in 2006 while I was living in New Mexico. A friend, Black Unicorn, felt that I should be a storyteller of Keylontic Science. The study of light, sound, the base codes of matter, multidimensionality, and creation mechanics. Quite a mouthful, is it not? Well, needless to say, it has been challenging for most people to grasp the technical information involved. I hope this book gives one the heart and meaning of Keylontic Science. Which is how to live by the Law of One or the One-ness, that I refer to so intensely in these books. In fact, it is a prime example of how all species can live a whole and complete life.
